KHVICHA KVARATSKHELIA EA SPORTS PLAYER OF THE MONTH FOR FEBRUARY

The award will be presented to the Napoli left-winger in the pre-match of Napoli vs Atalanta

The EA SPORTS Player Of The Month award for February has been assigned to Napoli player Khvicha Kvaratskhelia. The trophy will be presented during the pre-match of Napoli vs Atalanta, scheduled for Saturday 11th March 2023 at 6.00pm at the "Diego Armando Maradona" stadium in Naples.

Khvicha Kvaratskhelia was the most voted by fans on <http://serieapotm.ea-sports.com/>, in a poll that included Federico Baschirotto (Lecce), Angel Di Maria (Juventus), Aleksej Miranchuk (Torino) and Victor Osimhen (Napoli).

The five best players of the month has been selected taking into account the advanced analysis of Stats Perform, created from the tracking data recorded with the Hawk-Eye system. The rating system, patented in 2010 with K-Sport and scientifically validated, considers not only statistical data and technical events, but also positional data. This makes it possible to analyse crucial aspects such as movement without the ball and thus optimal movements, game choices, and the contribution to the technical and physical efficiency of the team, which allow for an objective and qualitative evaluation of the performance.

For the final calculation were considered the matchdays from 21 to 24 of Serie A 2022/2023.

"Kvaratskhelia is the first player to win the EA Sports Player Of The Month twice in the same season - said Lega Serie A CEO Luigi De Siervo -. Month after month, the Georgian winger is confirming his excellent impact in our league, thanks to his goalscoring skills and his ability to serve assists for his teammates. In fact, Spalletti's winger has already scored 10 goals so far and leads the assists chart with 9 passes. His dribbling ability, personality, determination and creativity make him an essential part of the Napoli side that is leading the league and already one of the stars of the present and future of Serie A and international football".
